

Catholic Apologetics Boot Camp

During this Year of Faith, get to know your Catholic faith—what you believe and the reasons behind it. In this 1-3 day workshop, you'll learn the arguments supporting all the major beliefs of Christians—the existence of God, the divinity of Christ, the inspiration of Scripture—as well as specifically Catholic doctrines like the Eucharist, the Immaculate Conception, and the infallibility of the Pope. Whether you've read the Catechism five times or haven't even read your church bulletin, this workshop will give you a deeper understanding of your faith and a renewed love of Christ and his Church.

- Session One: Is there a God?
- Session Two: Is Jesus God?
- Session Three: Catholicism and Protestantism
- Session Four: Revelation and the Church

For workshops longer than one day, further sessions may be chosen from among the following:

- Session A: Salvation by Faith Alone
- Session B: The Papacy
- Session C: The Eucharist
- Session D: The Sacrament of Reconciliation
- Session E: Mary and the Saints
- Session F: Purgatory and Indulgences
- Session G: The Church's Moral Teachings

Perfect for RCIA classes, college campus ministry groups, or parish missions. Non-Catholics welcome!

“Brilliant, funny and talented.”-Phil Baniewicz, founder of Life Teen

Meg Hunter-Kilmer graduated Summa Cum Laude with a theology degree from the University of Notre Dame. She went on to earn a Master's in Theological Studies from Notre Dame before teaching apologetics at the high school level for five years. Former students call her apologetics class the best class they've ever taken. Today, she travels the country speaking on God's truth, goodness, and beauty and blogging on anything and everything Christian at www.piercedhands.com.
